HUSBAND - William MCCOBB-1737

Allan P. McCobb, P.O. Box 771, Enid, OK 73702, 405-234-4883 in a letter dated January 1996 to McCobb Cousins provided this paragraph about William McCobb.

"Another early McCobb arrival was William of Rutland, Massachusetts, where he married Mary Crawford (daughter of Aaron and Anna (actually Aaron's wife was Agnes Wilson) on April 15, 1745. I'm guessing he was born between 1719 and 1725 and probably came to America in 1742/43 as the Rutland History books reference increased Scotch/Irish immigration to this settlement at that time. I would guess this William was a brother or cousin to the aforementioned James and Samuel, but doubt that we'll ever know for sure."

Allan McCobb provided this historical information in his letter, "MacCobbs are Scotch-Irish, which means our families came to Ireland from Scotland. However, while in Ireland, the Scots generally kept to themselves and seldom intermarried with the Irish. Therefore, even though these Scotch families (such as our MacCobbs) may have resided in Ireland for 100 to 200 years before immigrating to America, there is little, if any, Irish bloodlines. The records in Scotland are limited and it's doubtful that specific information on an apparently small MacCobb clan will ever be found. Scottish immigration to Ireland began about 1607 and continued to 1619. After a twelve year lull, immigration increased significantly in the 1630's. Apparently the first documented MacCobb was James in Londonderry, Ireland in 1703/04. I've been in contact with a couple of McCobb/MacCobb families in Ireland, but they don't know their ancestry any further back than the late 1800's. Once in the United States, MacCobb was written as McCobb (first c was raised) and now is the standard McCobb."

"It would appear that brothers Samuel (b. 1707) and James (b. 1710) were the first McCobbs to enter the U.S. . . . Beatrice (widow of Robert Blackburn, mother of Samuel and James) died in 1750 and is buried next to her son James outside of Phippsburg."

Note: Boothbay, (ME) was formerly Townsend, and Georgetown became Phippsburg. Samuel was in Boothbay; James, in Georgetown.

BIRTH: Allan P. McCobb, Enid, OK, a McCobb researcher, estimated William's birth year as circa 1718 in Ireland.

DEATH: Estate of William McCobb, Letter of Administration, 13 July 1778, Worcester Co., Mass., Recorded Vol. 18, p. 517, Series A, Case 39801, Worcester Co. Clerk's Office, Worcester, Mass. Photocopy of original in possession of writer.

The following portion of the Letter of Administration confirmed the appointment of Mary McCobb as the administratrix of the estate: "The Condition of this present Obligation is such That if the above-bouden Mary McCobb who has taken upon herself the Office of Administrix (sic) in the Estate of William McCobb late of Rutland Decd do make or cause to be made a true and perfect inventory of all . . . the Goods, Chattels, Rights and Credits of said deceased, which have or shall come to the Hands, Possession or Knowledge of her the said Mary McCobb . . ." The inventory specified above was to be completed by the 13th of October 1778. The records indicated that Mary McCobb did not complete the task of the administrator. John Frink was appointed administrator of the estate on 7 May 178l. Mary McCobb was not mentioned in the final Decree of Distribution. In addition, Martha, age 19, and Samuel, age 17, on the 7th Day of January AD 1783 were considered minors, and William Crawford was chosen to be their guardian. The above circumstances suggest to this writer that Mary McCobb, wife of William McCobb died between July 1778 and January 1783 when a guardian was appointed for her two minor children. [BIOGRAPHY] - William MCCOBB-1737

Allan P. McCobb, P.O. Box 271, Enid, OK 73702, 405-234-4863 in a letter dated January 1996 to MacCobb Cousins provided this paragraph about William McCobb.

"Another early McCobb arrival was William of Rutland, Massachusetts, where he married Mary Crawford (daughter of Aaron and Anna (actually Aaron's wife was Agnes Wilson) on April 13, 1763. On granting he was born between 1717 and 1725 and probably came to America in [1729-43] as the Rutland library books reference increased Scotch-Irish immigration to this settlement at that time. It would prove this William was a brother or cousin to the above-mentioned James and Samuel, but doubt that we'll ever know for sure."

Allan McCobb provided this bizarre information in his letter, "MacCobbs are Scotch-Irish, which means our families came to Ireland from Scotland. However, while in Ireland, the Scots generally kept to themselves and seldom intermarried with the Irish. Therefore, even though these Scotch families (such as our MacCobbs) may have resided in Ireland for 100 to 200 years before immigrating to America, there is little, if any, Irish bloodlines. The records we compiled are limited and it's doubtful that specific information on an apparently small MacCobb clan will ever be found. Scottish immigration to Ireland began about 1607 and continued to 1819. After a twelve year halt, immigration increased significantly in the 1830's. Apparently the first decent sized MacCobb was James in Londonderry, Ireland in 1703-04. I've been in contact with a couple of MacCobb/MacCobb families in Ireland, but they don't know their ancestry any further back than the late 1800's. Once in the United States, MacCobb was written as MacCobb (first c was raised) and now is the standard MacCobb."

"It would appear that brothers Samuel (b. 1707) and James (b. 1710) were the first MacCobbs to enter the U.S. . . . Beatrice (widow of Robert Hinckley, brother of Samuel and James) died in 1750 and is buried next to her son James outside of Pepperell."

Note: Hinckley, (MD) was formerly Townsend, and Groton from Boston Pepperell. Samuel was in Boothby, James, in Georgetown.

[DEATH] Allan P. McCobb, Enid, OK, a MacCobb researcher, estimated William's birth year as circa 1718 in Ireland.

[DEATH] Estate of William McCobb, Letter of Administration, 11 July 1777. Worcester Co., Mass., Recorded Vol. 18, p.312, Series A, Case 19801. Worcester Co. Clerk's Office, Worcester, Mass. Photocopy of original in possession of writer.

The following person in the Letter of Administration confirmed the appointment of Mary McCobb as the administratrix of the estate. "The Condition of this present Obligation is such That if the above-bounden Mary McCobb who has taken upon herself the Office of Administratrix (sic) to the Estate of William McCobb late of Rutland Deed do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all . . . the Goods, Chattels, Rights and Credits of said deceased, which have or shall come to the Hands, Possession or Knowledge of her the said Mary McCobb . . ." The inventory specified above was to be completed by the 11th of October 1777. The records indicated that Mary McCobb did not complete the task of the administratrix. John Pitts was appointed administrator of the estate on 7 May 1781. Mary McCobb was not mentioned in the final Decree of Distribution. In addition, Martha, age 19, and Samuel, age 17, on the 7th Day of January AD 1780 were considered minors, and William Crawford was chosen to be their guardian. The above circumstances suggest to this writer that Mary McCobb, wife of William McCobb died between July 1777 and January 1778 when a guardian was appointed for her two minor children. to William & Mary McCobb is unknown at this time. He was not Mary's brother, but I suppose it is possible that he was an uncle. Further research needs to be done concerning this relationship.]

A selection from the guardianship documents states that Martha chose William Crawford as her guardian. ". . . Rutland Decm 20th 1782. Guardianship Appointment, Estate of William McCobb, 7 January 1783, Worcester Co., Mass., Recorded Vol. 199, p. 474, Series A, Case 39800, Worcester Co. Clerk's Office, Worcester, Mass. Photocopy of original in possession of Mrs. Betty Leach, 7541 Oak Leaf Drive, Santa Rosa, CA 95409.

"Worcester, Octr 7th 1783---I hereby accept this Return of the Commissioners and order a Distribution of the within Estate accordingly. Jas Dorr J. Prob"

The distribution paper was signed by the following heirs and their spouses: John McCobb, Patrick Bryan, Mary (x) Wheeler, Isabel (x) Makelherren, Nancy (x) McCobb, and William Crawford, guardian for Samuel and Martha McCobb.

The final two pages of the Administration Documents consist of the "Decree of Distribution" which listed the following heirs: ". . . makes said estate amount to three hundred and thirty three pounds one ninth parte (sic) of which is thirty seven pounds there being eight heirs. We have set to each of said deceased heirs the sums following:"

To John McCobb oldest Son of Said Deceased Seventy four pounds; To Samuel McCobb thirty Seven pounds; To Isebal (Isabel, Isabelle) McCobb who maried (sic) John Hair (Hare) thirty Seven pounds; To Margrat (Margaret, Margrit) McCobb who maried (sic) with Patrick Bryan (Obrine, Briant) thirty Seven pounds; To Frankes (Francis, Fanny, Fanne) McCobb who maried (sic) with James Makelherron (Makelherren, Mcelheron, Mcelherron) thirty Seven pounds; To Mary McCobb who maried (sic) with Phinias (Phineas, Phinehas) Wheeler thirty Seven pounds; To Nancy McCobb thirty Seven pounds; To Martha McCobb thirty Seven pounds.

Note: Variations in spelling of given names & surnames in other documents were placed in parentheses in the preceding paragraph.)

The following excerpt from Allan P. McCobb's, MacCobb Surname & Historical Background, mailed with a McCobb Family Reunion notice, dated March 30, 2000, stated the following: Brothers Samuel (b. 1707) and James (b. 1710) were the first McCobbs to arrive in the U.S. Although some historians claim they came to Maine with Col. David Dunbar around 1730, an Arrowsic deposition by Samuel McCobb indicates he was here in 1728. . . . There is strong evidence to support the fact of two more brothers. William (born circa 1718) resided in the Oakham/Rutland, Massachusetts, area and married Mary Crawford in 1745. However land records from 1741 show that he had property in Boothbay Maine and in fact requested additional land there. George (b. 1725) married Anna Marie Rutherford (daughter of Reverend Robert Rutherford) and resided in the St. George and Cushing Areas of Maine. He had close ties to James McCobb (son of Samuel).

WIFE - Mary CRAWFORD-1738

General William Crawford, THE CRAWFORD FAMILY OF OAKHAM, MASSACHUSETTS, (Oakham Historical Society, 1912), pp. 9 & 10 listed the children of Mary Crawford and William McCobb as follows: Elizabeth McCobb, first daughter, spouse, a Mr. Mann, settled in New Hampshire, (probably predeceased her father as she was not mentioned as an heir in his will); Isabelle, second daughter, spouse, John McMellen of Providence, Rhode Island, &

(During a personal visit in October 1996 to The Old Burial Ground, Rutland, Massachusetts, this writer was unable to find headstones for William & Mary McCobb, but evidence seemed to indicate that some of the markers had been destroyed, removed, or eroded so that they could not be read.)

Rutland Marriages, VITAL RECORDS OF RUTLAND, MASSACHUSETTS, p. 125. Intentions entry read as follows: Cobb (see McCobb), Samuel and Azubah Newton of Princeton, int. Sept. 29, 1787.

Francis Everett Blake, HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF PRINCETON in the County of Worcester and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Volume II, Genealogies (Published by the Town of Princeton, 1915) p. 64 & 65.

Blake's History of Princeton made the following remarks concerning Samuel Cobb (McCobb): "No satisfactory account of the earlier generations of this family have been found. The record begins with SAMUEL of Rutland who seems to have dropped into Rutland East-Wing (now Princeton) in 1787. The tradition is that he came from Weston, Middlesex County, before that date, that he was there a tenant of Moses Gill, who owned at that time (latter part of 1700) large tracts of land in Weston and induced many English and Scotch people to settle there. He afterwards acquired large possessions in Princeton and Samuel Cobb followed him from Weston there and settled on this land"

Note: It seems clear to this writer that Samuel Cobb & Samuel McCobb were the same person. There was a connection between Moses Gill and the McCobbs. One of the witnesses to a deed in 1785 for the sale of property of William McCobb, Late of Rutland, was Moses Gill. This sworn statement by Samuel McCobb concerning the sale reads: "Commonwealth of Massachusetts Sepr 29 - 1785 Samel McCobb and Martha McCobb came before me & Acknowledged this instrument by them executed to be their Deed Moses Gill - Justice Peace throughout ye Commonwealth."

This deed provided direct evidence that Moses Gill and Samuel McCobb knew each other, and Samuel may very well have been a tenant or "employee" of Gill.

Note: Samuel & Martha McCobb were both minors at the time of their father's death. William Crawford was appointed as their guardian.

Another selection from Blake's History about COBB, Samuel of Rutland are included for clarification. "COBB, Samuel of Rutland, progenitor of the Princeton family of that name, married Oct. 12, 1787, Azubah Newton sister of Ezra Newton who came from Cape Cod to Princeton. He, Samuel, lived on the homestead near the town line dividing Rutland from Princeton in the southwestern part of the town until the time of his death Sept. 12, 1810. . . (Azubah) she married (2d) Oct. 6, 1813, Samuel Rice of Northboro. Samuel & Azubah had eleven children, Charles, Elias-Hull, Samuel, Azubah, John, Nancy, Ezra, Sally, William, George W., & Eliza.

Some unanswered questions remain concerning Samuel McCobb. Why did he change his surname to Cobb from McCobb? Why did Blake, the compiler of the History, fail to connect Samuel to William & Mary McCobb? It seems reasonable to suspect that McCobb siblings had scattered to other parts of the country; and at the time the book was compiled, no one remained in the area who really "knew" the story. Even Samuel's children may not have known their family history since their grandfather and probably their grandmother died several years before their father married and had children.

DEATH: Princeton Deaths, VITAL RECORDS OF PRINCETON, MASSACHUSETTS, (Worcester, Massachusetts, Published by Franklin P. Rice, Trustee of the Fund, 1902), p. 157. "COBB, Samuel, Sept. 12, 1810. p.r."

BIRTH: Samuel McCobb was 17 years old when William Crawford was appointed his guardian on January 7, 1783.

This account of the Crawford family of Oakham from 1750 to 1860, sometimes called The Crawford Book, was written by General William Crawford. It is printed by the Oakham Historical Society to insure its preservation. Additions, chiefly of dates, made by persons who have used the manuscript, are put in brackets.

William Crawford was Captain of the Washington Grenadiers in the war of 1812, and became afterwards Brigadier General in the Massachusetts Militia. He represented Oakham in the Massachusetts Legislature, was State Senator, and, for many years, Chairman of the County Commissioners of Worcester County. He served the town also as town clerk, selectman, and member of the school committee, and was a teacher of great excellence in Oakham and neighboring towns.

He was graduated from Dartmouth College in 1807.

THE CRAWFORD FAMILY OF OAKHAM, MASSACHUSETTS.

The Crawford Family, which is the subject of the subsequent record, is, if tradition can be relied on, of Scotch descent, but left its native country at a date unknown and came to the County of Tyrone in Ireland, where it remained till the commencement of the year 1713, when it emigrated to America, and arrived at Boston in the Colony of Massachusetts during the spring or summer of the same year, and there took up its residence till its removal to Rutland. At what particular time it arrived at Rutland is not known, but it must have been previous to the organization of Rutland under its act of incorporation as a town, for it appears by ancient records that the grant of what is now Rutland was confirmed to the children of Major Simon Willard of Lancaster and others, by an order of the General Court passed on the twenty-third day of February, 1713; that the first clearing or felling of trees therein commenced in 1716; that the families of the settlers commenced moving there on the twenty-third day of September, 1719; and that it was incorporated as the town of Rutland at the session of the General Court begun on Wednesday the thirtieth day of May, 1722.

The first meeting of the settlers under the act of incorporation was held on the last Monday of July, 1722, for the choice of town officers. At this time the family of Crawfords was there and must have been included among the inhabitants incorporated, inasmuch as one of the family was then chosen into office. From this it is evident the family was among the first settlers in the town and was established there before the year 1722.

Aaron Crawford arrived at Boston, Massachusetts, from the parish of Cappy, County of Tyrone, Ireland, in the year 1713, with his wife, whose maiden name was Agnes Wilson, accompanied by three sons, whose names were 1, Samuel; 2, John; 3, Alexander; who were born in the parish of Cappy in the County of Tyrone, Ireland. Alexander was three years of age when he arrived in Boston; of course he must have been born in 1710.

After their arrival in America they had born daughters Martha [an error as this daughter was born in Ireland in 1706] and Isabelle, son Moses, and daughter Mary [born in Rutland April 15, 1721].

Aaron Crawford was one of the first settlers of Rutland and died there, also his wife Agnes, and were buried in the graveyard in the center of the town.

[Aaron was born in Ireland 1677, died in Rutland August 6, 1754. Agnes his wife was born in Ireland 1677, died in Rutland December 10, 1760.]

SAMUEL CRAWFORD, the first son of Aaron and Agnes Crawford, married Margaret Montgomery and settled in the southerly part of Rutland, where he and his wife both died, without issue, and were buried in the graveyard in the center of the town.

JOHN CRAWFORD, the second son of Aaron and Agnes Crawford, after residing in Rutland a few years, went to Palmer, where he died a bachelor.

MOSES CRAWFORD, the fourth son of Aaron and Agnes Crawford, resided in Rutland and there died a bachelor, and was buried in the graveyard in the center of the town.

Alexander Crawford, the third son of Aaron and Agnes Crawford, married Elizabeth Crawford [February 5, 1735–6], who [daughter of John, son of Samuel] was descended from another and entirely different family of Crawfords consisting of several brothers and sisters who emigrated from Matherafelt in the County of Londonderry, Ireland, and settled in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Virginia. Alexander and Elizabeth settled in Rutland, where they resided till March 1750, when they removed to Rutland West Wing, now Oakham, and were one of the nine families who first settled the township. Their children were five sons, all born in Rutland and were named William, who died young and was buried in the graveyard in the center of Rutland; John; a third son who died an infant; Aaron, and William.

Alexander Crawford died October 11, 1793, aged 83 years.

Elizabeth Crawford, wife of Alexander Crawford, died April 27, 1774, aged 62 years.

Martha Crawford [born 1706 in Ireland], the first daughter of Aaron and Agnes Crawford, married James Bell from Ireland, settled in the west part of Rutland West Wing, now Oakham, where they lived and died and were buried in the graveyard in the center of Oakham. Their children were seven sons and four daughters, named Molly, William, Martha, James, John, Aaron, Abraham, Agnes, Samuel, Simson, Sarah. James and Martha Bell were one of the first nine families who settled in Oakham and came there in November, 1749. James Bell died March 25, 1793, and Martha Bell, his wife, died December 20, 1795 [September 20, gravestone].

Molly Bell, first daughter of James and Martha Bell, married [June 19, 1755] in Oakham [James] Mulholland, removed to a place called Murrysfield [now called Chester], where they settled.

William Bell, first son of James and Martha Bell, married [September 13, 1759] Christian McFarland of Oakham and settled in a place called Murrysfield. After his wife Christian's death he married for a second wife widow Hannah Stone.

Martha Bell, second daughter of James and Martha Bell, never married, died July 8, 1782, and was buried in the graveyard in the center of the town.

James Bell, second son of James and Martha Bell, married Anne Osburn of Oakham, died July 17, 1811, and was buried in the graveyard in the center of the town. Their children were four daughters, named Melinda, Patty, Polly, Anna. Patty and Polly married two brothers of the name of McFarland, resided a short time in Oakham, and then settled in the northerly part of New Hampshire. Melinda and Anna resided with their mother in Oakham. Anne Bell, the wife of James Bell, died March 1, 1850.

John Bell, third son of James and Martha Bell, married [Intention of marriage published June 27, 1776] Miss [Hannah] White of Western [now Warren], and settled in a place called Murrysfield.

Aaron Bell, fourth son of James and Martha Bell, married [Intention of marriage published July 3, 1773] widow [Mary] Cheney of Western and settled in a place called Murrysfield.

Abraham Bell, fifth son of James and Martha Bell, married a Miss Joslyn of New Braintree and settled in a place called Murrysfield.

Agnes Bell, third daughter of James and Martha Bell, married Robert Forbes, resided in Oakham, where he died and was buried in the graveyard in the center of the town. Their children were Arthur, Aaron, Christian. After the death of her husband, Agnes Forbes with her three children removed to New York State.

Samuel Bell, sixth son of James and Martha Bell, married [June 22, 1780] Miss [Elizabeth] Campbell of Murrysfield and settled in that place.

Simson Bell, seventh son of James and Martha Bell, married [Intention of marriage published November 3, 1791] Chloe Miller of Western and settled in the North Parish of Brookfield, where he died without issue.

Sarah Bell, fourth daughter of James and Martha Bell, married a Mr. Campbell and settled in Murrysfield.

Isabelle Crawford, second daughter of Aaron and Agnes Crawford, never married, died young and was buried in the graveyard in the center of Rutland.

Mary Crawford, third daughter of Aaron and Agnes Crawford, married William McCobb and settled in Rutland, where they both died and were buried in the graveyard in the center of the town. Their children were seven daughters and three sons, whose names were Elizabeth, Isabelle, Aaron, Margot, Nancy, Fanny, John, Molly, Martha, Samuel.

Elizabeth McCobb, first daughter of William and Mary McCobb, married a Mr. Mann and settled in New Hampshire.

Isabelle McCobb, second daughter of William and Mary McCobb, married John McMellen of Providence, Rhode Island, and settled there.

AARON MCCOBB, first son of William and Mary McCobb, never married, died in the service of the United States in the American Revolution.

MARGOT MCCOBB, third daughter of William and Mary McCobb, married Patrick Briant, and settled in Vermont.

NANCY MCCOBB, fourth daughter of William and Mary McCobb, married Mark Heard, resided some years in Rutland and removed to Montague, and there settled.

FANNY MCCOBB, fifth daughter of William and Mary McCobb, married James Michaelherring, and settled in Vermont.

JOHN MCCOBB, second son of William and Mary McCobb, settled in a place called Murrysfield.

MOLLY MCCOBB, sixth daughter of William and Mary McCobb, married Phineas Wheeler, and settled in Vermont.

MARTHA MCCOBB, seventh daughter of William and Mary McCobb, married a Mr. Gibbs of Princeton, and settled in the northerly part of the County of Worcester.

SAMUEL MCCOBB, third son of William and Mary McCobb, married a Miss Newton of Princeton, and settled in that town.

JOHN CRAWFORD

Captain John Crawford, second son of Alexander and Elizabeth Crawford, was born in Rutland January 7, 1739, and married Rachel Henderson of Rutland in January [February 9], 1759, and settled in the westerly part of Rutland West Wing, now Oakham. Their children were four sons and three daughters, whose names were Elizabeth, John, Alexander, Sarah, Samuel, Calvin, Rachel. Rachel Crawford, wife of John Crawford, died April 24, 1773, and was buried in the graveyard in the center of Oakham [age 34].

ELIZABETH CRAWFORD, first daughter of John and Rachel Crawford, was born March 14, 1760, and married [Intention of marriage published December 9, 1779] Robert Wilson, resided many years in the westerly part of Oakham, and then removed with her husband and children to the westerly part of Vermont. Their children were five sons and eight daughters, and were named John, Sarah, Polly, Martha, who died young, Elizabeth, Calvin, Luther, Thersey, Lucy, Gardner and Milton, twins, Sarepta, Augusta.

Wife Mary C. GREENE-24

Notes and sources of information

Leaches in the organization of this church. "The next business was the election of officers. The following were elected by unanimous vote. Clerk- Mrs. C. A. Bacon; Treasurer - Hattie M. Leach; Deacon - Francis Andrus; Trustee for three years - J. C. Leach; for two years - Mrs. Catherine Brougher; for one year - G. K. Chesley.

DEATH: John C. Leach died 12 Aug 1905 in Havana, Sargent Co., ND. Two attempts were made to obtain John Leach's death record, but the State of North Dakota has not located a death record for him. We were unable to find an obituary in Sargent Co. papers, but we found his obituary in the RACINE DAILY JOURNAL.

OBITUARY: The RACINE DAILY JOURNAL, Monday afternoon, August 13, 1905. J. C. Leach, a former old resident of Racine died on Saturday afternoon at his home in Havana, North Dakota, aged 78 years. The remains will be brought to the city for burial. Funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his son, William Leach [1048] Villa Street. There survives the deceased a wife, two sons and one daughter. Mr. Leach was one of the honored and early residents and left here about ten years ago. [If he "left Racine ten years ago", he would have moved to North Dakota about 1895.]

CEMETERY RECORDS: The following information was obtained from Mound Cemetery burial records. Leach, John C., Lot Book 370, Grave 5, Lot 95, Block 28, Burial No. 11634, date of death Aug. 12, 1905, age 78 y 4 m 4 d.

WIFE - Mary C. GREENE-24

These sources were used for the following notes concerning research into the possible ancestry of Mary Leach's father, Rufus Greene:

Louise Brownell Clarke, EXCERPTS FROM THE GREENES OF RHODE ISLAND, compiled from MSS. of the late Major General George Sears Greene, USA (New York: 1903), pp. 214-219,

REPRESENTATIVE MEN AND OLD FAMILIES OF RHODE ISLAND, GenealogicalRecords and Historical Sketches of Prominent and Representative Citizens and of Many of the Old Families. . ., 3 v. (Chicago, J. H. Beers, 1908,), pp. 1282, 1283.

VITAL RECORDS OF RHODE ISLAND, "East Greenwich--Births & Deaths", p. 120.

Three other children of Rufus & Martha Greene lived &/or died in NY. Mary, wife of John Reynolds, moved to Hancock, Delaware Co., NY; Martha, wife of George Harris, moved to Stamford, Schoharie Co., NY; & David, a mariner, died in NY in 1792, his wife, Eunice Hopkins, died in Lawrence/Laurens, Otsego Co., NY, in 1836.

Was Rufus Greene, b. about 1787, husband of Betsey Weed, & father of Mary C. Greene, a son of either Rufus or William Greene? A suggestion of a possible relationship was provided when it was discovered that Jonathan, a younger brother of Rufus & William Greene, was a close neighbor of John Weed, Betsey Weed's father.

Early New York State vital records do not exist and Vermont records are incomplete; therefore, alternative sources of Greene vital information need to be found. Many questions need answers, but chance, just plain luck, & perseverance may play a part in finding answers to the Green ancestry. A look at census & other available records for Mary's siblings may prove helpful.

CHILD 1 - William H. LEACH-25

Karen Leach, buried in grave 6, born 1945 & died on day of birth, was probably an infant daughter of either Wesley or IMPORTANT NOTES: John Crum Leach was probably the son of John Leach who died 2 Feb 1849, age 47, Hopkinton, St. Lawrence Co., NY. This John's birth year was about 1793, and it was determined from his age at time of death. A quote from EARLY HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF HOPKINTON, by Carlton E. Sanford, (Boston: The Bartlett Press, 1903), pages 104-105, provided a substantial link between John Leach and the Rufus Greene family. "John Leach, father of David, took a tract in 1835 next west of Mr. Harran on south side, where he had a log house, all trace of which has gone." The John Leach mentioned in this quote was probably the John Leach who died in Feb 1849. He is buried in Sec. B, Lot 20, Hillcrest Cemetery, Parishville, St. Lawrence Co., NY. Others who were buried in the same lot were Joseph Brownell, no additional record of his death; Hannah Brownell, age 25, died 1 Jan 1836; and Phila Hazen, age 31, died 18 Apr 1826. To date, no other information has connected this John Leach to others buried in this lot.

Direct evidence from primary or secondary sources has not been found to link John Crum Leach with John Leach, the father of David, but indirect evidence has led these compilers to believe that our ancestor was probably the son of John Leach and the brother of David. Research will continue in an effort to substantiate these relationships. David Leach's death record obtained from the NY State Archives gave his parents' names as John Leach & Abigail Ellis. A John Leach married Abigail Ellis, 11 Jul 1813, Bow, NH. About 11 years separate the births of David & John Leach. Even if it were proved that John & David were brothers, it would not be proof that Abigail Ellis was John's mother.

Another quote from the EARLY HISTORY OF THE TOWN OF HOPKINTON further suggests a relationship between John, his son, David, & John Crum Leach. "Rufus Greene came from [Shelburne] Vt., and took the tract next west of John Leach on the south side. His wife was Jane Wood [sic]. [His wife was actually BETSEY WEED.] and they had nine children: viz., Pliny, who died in California [in 1850]; Jane, who married Darius E. Kent in 1842; Melville, who died at Racine, Wis.; William, Lucius, Ira, who died in Missouri; Charles who died in California; MARY, who married JOHN LEACH and now lives at HAVANA, ND., and Robert, who died at Racine, Wis. All are dead except Mary." John & Mary Leach moved to Havana, ND, in the early 1890's. Therefore, Carlton E. Sanford writing a town history in a northeast county in upstate NY must have obtained genealogical data from someone living in his local community. This person was probably David Leach who lived until April 1900. [Even though we do not have direct proof of a relationship, we believe the circumstantial evidence is quite strong. Ed & Betty Leach, Compilers]

The following short biographical sketch was found in THE HISTORY OF RACINE AND KENOSHA COUNTIES, WISCONSIN. . ., (Chicago: Western Historical Co., 1879), p. 711:

Biographical Sketch: John C. Leach, farmer, Sec. 5; P.O. Dear Betty,

Thank you for all the information and the Obit. It is exactly what I wanted.

I am glad that you are working on the Crum family in New York. That is an interesting mess. I have spent more than ten years working on the Crumb/Crum families and still have no idea where and how they all fit together. I will tell you in a capsule what I know.

I am not really sure how many Crumb/Crum families there are in New York. I have put them in the following lists. These may be wrong, or I may have made two families out of one, but so far this is it.

1. The Crumb family. This is my line. Originally from Rhode Island, with Daniel Crumb as the originator. They moved to New York in the late 1600's. Some of them also moved south and others stayed in Rhode Island.

2. The Krum/Crum family. These people started out in New York. The original family came from Holland and settled in New Amsterdam. The carried the name Krum, Crum and Crumb. They finally had to go to court to decide what name they were going to use. Most of them settled in ulster Co. but they were all over the place. I think I have them settled but there are sure to be some I have missed.

3. William Crum family. This is Janet Crum Billings family. She cannot find any ancestor other than William in 1800. She has everyone since, but the name may not have been Crum in the beginning, but Mc Crum or some such. She has been working on this for about 25 years also.

4. The Crum family that married into the Chapel family. I cannot find any ancestor to this family. They just seemed to appear. I have all the descendants down to the last phone book, but no ancestors other than an odd relative here or there. There is a researcher in New York who has been working on this for one of the descendants, and sent me all his notes, but there isn't really much other than the direct line.

5. The Crum family that settled in Rochester. There was a William Crum settled in Rochester in the 1700's. He was there in the earliest census they have. He owned and ran a newspaper and print shop. I cannot find where he fits into the Crum/Krum bunch. He in not of the Crumb families. There are several members of my family living in Rochester, and I spent a lot of time there in January 1991. Even so I cannot find much out.

6. The Crumb family (William) a much later group that also came from Wales. This family came to the United States in the late 1700's. Too late for the revolution. I have them pretty well documented.

7. The Penn Crum's. These people originally settled in Penn, but wandered into New York. There are lots of odds and ends here, but I can find "homes" for most of them.

Your Crumb family from Otsego Co. Plainfield with Waitstill Jr. etc. These were sons of Waitstill Crumb and Patience Wells. They had Amey b. 9 Jan 1767 married Jeduthan Fuller, Nathaniel b. 14 Jan 1769 married Elizabeth Hinckley, Waitstill Jr. born in 1771 married 1. Cynthia Holcome (2) Lydia Atwater Kimball, John Wells born 5 May 1778 married Amy Brown, (this could be your John Wells Crum) Hannah born 13 July 1781, married Parley Philips and Patience married Waitstill Fuller (no date of birth or marriage.

You might try looking up the Fuller and Phillips families in 1820. One of the men may have died and the daughter married again. This was not so unusual and Mrs. Fiske did not find all the information. Amee (Amy) died in 1816 so it seems that she was too old to have had John Crum Leach.

NOW!!!!!!!!!!!!!! I am really interested in this Marstill Crumb. This is the first I have heard of this name. (Remember I am lost in 1812) According to your information, He could have been the father of Ambrose Crumb. He was in the right place, right time. The first I find Ambrose is in the 1830-35 census in Tompkins Co. New York. If you find anything else about Martstill please let me know. The rest are pretty well documented, although as I said, Mrs. Fiske was not always right.

Thank you again for the obit. It really helps a lot. If I can do anything for you, please let me know.

Thanks again.

Barbara Jean
